

Alberta Health Services & Northern Alberta Development Council Joint Bursary Partnership Program – Aboriginal Funding

Alberta Health Services (AHS) & the Northern Alberta Development Council (NADC) are proud to offer this unique bursary opportunity. This bursary partnership program will match between $1000 and $3000 per student – to a total of $6000 per year.

A lot of people think that you don't get as many opportunities in a small community. That's not the case. In fact, my career has constantly evolved, keeping me challenged the entire time.

what's your reason?

Award Selection Criteria

NADC's Requirements

- Students must be a resident of Alberta for one year.
- Students must be enrolled full-time in a post-secondary program designated by Alberta Advanced Education & Technology.
- Students must not be in default of a provincial loan.
- Students must be at arms length from the sponsor (not related and selected by impartial means).
- Students must have reasonably good prospects for employment in northern Alberta upon graduation.
- Students cannot receive both the NADC Bursary and the Partnerships Bursary during the same school year.
- Students can receive more than one Partnership Bursary; however the total matching funds from NADC cannot exceed $3000 in the same academic year.

AHS's Requirements

- Students must be of First Nation, Métis, or Inuit heritage, and able to provide proof of status upon acceptance of the award.
- Students must be willing and able to sign a return service agreement to work at an AHS facility in the geographic area identified by the NADC.
- Students must be enrolled in a health care related program at an accredited post secondary institution.
- Other criteria as identified by AHS (such as locations & positions under pressure).

Section 4 STUDENT REMARKS

The NADC Bursary Partnerships Program is intended to attract graduates to live and work in northern Alberta. Bursary recipients must live and work in northern Alberta within six months of graduation. The Return Service Obligation is one full-time month (or equivalent) for every $500 of bursary funds received. Students who do not work in the north will be required to repay the bursary.

What are your main reasons for wanting to live and work in northern Alberta?
