November 22, 2017 • 7:00am – 12:30pm

Hall D, Shaw Conference Centre, Edmonton, AB

The Spotlight on Research Breakfast is an annual event hosted by the Glenrose Rehabilitation Hospital that showcases innovation in rehabilitation medicine research.

This year's topic will focus on the future of treatment for PTSD and related mental health issues.

Our keynote speaker, COL. Rakesh Jetly, will present his talk, "A Century after the Great War: Mental Health lessons learned by the Canadian Armed Forces", and will focus on building an understanding of the historic lessons learned regarding trauma and stress in the military, and an examination of the Canadian Armed Forces (CAF) current approach and research priorities with respect to PTSD and other Mental Health issues.

A Master Class session following the keynote address will explore how regional civilian services including First Responders and Healthcare Practitioners have adopted the CAF's approach, and what the future of PTSD support looks like for our community.

A poster symposium will be held after the breakfast focusing on Fundamental/Applied Research and/ or Clinical Innovations in Health Sciences at the University of Alberta and at the Glenrose Rehabilitation Hospital.
