

Check it before you wreck it

Get screened.
Know your risk.
Make changes.

If you're between the ages of 40-75 years, talk to your doctor about getting a Cardiovascular Disease (CVD) Risk Assessment with your next blood test.

It's the first step to preventing a heart attack or stroke.

Version: 18/01/23