

Build Your Occupational Therapy Career in Public Healthcare

Salary for Occupational Therapy I*

- Salary range: $85,987 - $114,487
- Total compensation range (Salary + Benefits): $100,030 - $132,308

Work - Life Balance

- Paid time off – starting at 31 days/year (15 days' vacation, 13 stat holidays, 3 personal days, 1 float stat)*
- Consistent work schedule
- Employee Family Assistance Program

Financial Benefits

- Salary increases (9 step scale) with long service pay adjustment
- Defined pension plan (LAPP) with employer-matched contributions
- $2,750 health and wellness spending account*
- Employee discounts
- Pay for supervising students
- $504 towards Professional Fees

Professional Development

- Part of a professional community
- New employee orientation
- Mentorship
- Access to professional consultation
- Three paid professional development days/year
- Free and low-cost education opportunities
- Career pathways that fit your career goals
- Leadership opportunities

*Calculations based on a full-time position

Employer paid benefits include: Pension, Supplemental Health, Dental, Basic Life Insurance, Accidental Death and Dismemberment, Short and Long-Term Disability, and Flexible Spending Account.

Total Compensation

■ Base Salary ■ Employer Based Benefits

Every day, I make a difference in the lives of my patients and families.

Public healthcare gives me variety, practice support, mentorship and a chance to use all my skills.

Learn more about working as a Occupational Therapist by scanning the QR code or visit our careers page below.

careers.ahs.ca

