

Supervised consumption services

help save lives and build safer communities

StopODs.ca

Supervised consumption services provide a place where people can use drugs in a monitored, clean environment to reduce harm from substance use.

These services help provide:

- Connection to housing and supports
- Medical support
- Overdose prevention and interventions
- Counselling
- Safe injection supplies
- Access to opioid treatment

