

Did you know that adults taking second generation antipsychotics are more likely to develop metabolic syndrome?

Routine monitoring for side effects of first and second generation antipsychotics should include things like:

A recommended safety monitoring record for adults taking antipsychotics is available online:

<http://www.albertahealthservices.ca/frm-18658.pdf>