

Chest Pain

Definition

If there is any evidence of myocardial ischemia (e.g. suggestive history, positive troponin, ST changes on ECG) and admission is required, cardiology should be the first service consulted. GIM should be consulted to for all others.

Disposition

A positive troponin in the absence of other features of acute coronary syndrome does not require automatic cardiology consultation.