

Seizures

Disposition

Epilepsy can often be managed as an outpatient, but if this is not feasible primary seizure disorders and those secondary to known or suspected brain pathology should be admitted to neurology.

Caveats

Seizures secondary to toxins, drugs, withdrawal syndromes, and metabolic disturbances are admitted to GIM.