

Métis Settlements General Council

Health Innovation & Cancer Prevention (HICP)

PROJECT SYNOPSIS: Through community sessions, engage Métis youth living in the Settlements, in the areas of smoking cessation, physical activity, recreation, healthy living.

MÉTIS SETTLEMENTS GENERAL COUNCIL
PROJECT SYNOPSIS: Through community sessions, engage Métis youth living in the Settlements, in the areas of smoking cessation, physical activity, recreation, healthy living.	HICP PROJECTS: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• NOT SPECIFY
Outcomes/Accomplishments	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Used creative ways to support teens during Covid
Challenges	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Lack of technological devices and/or internet connectivity• Health restrictions prohibited in-person engagements• Changing roles and processes with little communication between programs and administration• Couldn't hire new staff due to limited funding
Lessons Learned	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Need youth specific programs• Collaborate with other program services to effectively address all challenges youths are facing (i.e. mental health, increased in alcohol & drug use, sedentary lifestyle etc.)
Next Step(s)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Find resources/funding for youth programs
Recommendation(s)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Continue funding for prevention programs