

More Information for ELCC and Families

Use these resources to promote positive meal and snack times in your child care, and to support families at home. These resources can help you support children's social connections, learning, and health.

For information on:

Visit ...

Supporting social time

Eat together tip sheet
Talk together tip sheet
Eating Together short video
Healthy eating for parents and children website

Offering healthy food choices

Offer Healthy Meals and Snacks short video
Healthy Drinks, Healthy Kids short video
Healthy Eating for Young Children tip sheets
Feeding Tiny Tummies booklet

Creating a child-friendly setting

Feeding Toddlers and Young Children handout
Patience Works Better Than Pressure short video

Encouraging child learning

Children learn by watching you tip sheet
Role Model Healthy Eating short video
Involve kids in planning and preparing meals website

Supporting positive meals and snack times in your overall program

Family-Style Meal Service in Child Care Programs handout
Healthy Eating Starts Here – ELCC: menu planning, recipes, allergies, staff training, policy, healthy eating resources website

Other nutrition resources

Healthy Eating Starts Here
Healthy Parents, Healthy Children
Alberta Nutrition Guidelines for Children & Youth
Canada's Food Guide

