Free lectures offered this week at Cross Cancer Institute

Learn more about the disease during facility's 50th anniversary week

EDMONTON – The public is invited to attend free cancer-related lectures offered this week by Alberta Health Services at the Cross Cancer Institute.

Led by various cancer experts, the one-hour lectures are part of the week-long celebration of the Cross Cancer Institute's 50th anniversary.

The following lectures will be held in the Zane Feldman Auditorium, Room 2286, at the Cross Cancer Institute, 11560 University Ave.:

- July 3 – Understanding Cancer, 4 p.m.
- July 4 – Imaging Cancer, 4 p.m.
- July 5 – Treating Cancer, 4 p.m.
- July 6 – The Untold Story, noon.

The Cross Cancer Institute has been a leader in caring for Albertans and neighbours for 50 years. It has become a fixture in the community, providing inpatient and outpatient services to surrounding communities.

Alberta Health Services is the provincial health authority responsible for planning and delivering health supports and services for more than four million adults and children living in Alberta. Its mission is to provide a patient-focused, quality health system that is accessible and sustainable for all Albertans.
