Water may have been contaminated during the fire.

What happened?

How do we fix it?

1. Confirm drinking water treatment plant is making potable water.

2. Flush non-potable water out of pipes; drain and clean reservoirs.

3. Replace with clean potable water.

4. Lab testing to confirm no remaining contaminants.

5. Residents flush non-potable water from their plumbing following instructions included in re-entry package.