Re: Calgary Laboratory Website

PLEASE POST OR DISTRIBUTE AS WIDELY AS APPROPRIATE

Key Message:

- The decommissioning and content migration of the Former Calgary Laboratory Services Website is occurring during the month of September.
- Through-out the month of September all required content and resources on the Calgary Laboratory Website will migrate to new online locations as indicated below:
 - Content and resources will migrate to the Alberta Precision Laboratories (APL) Website www.albertaprecisionlabs.ca
 - Transfusion Medicine related content and resources will migrate to the AHS Transfusion Medicine Website www.ahs.ca/labtransfusion
- When the content migration is complete the Calgary Website will no longer be available and users will be redirected to the APL Website.

Why this is important:

- Access to the Former Calgary Laboratory Services Website will end when the content has been transitioned to the APL and AHS locations. Required content and resources from these webpages will be available to users at the online locations indicated above.

Action Required:

- Please update any saved resource links to new locations.

Inquiries and feedback may be directed to:
